Item 12 Small Businesses

The SEC is required by the Regulatory Flexibility Act to consider the effect of its regulations on small entities. In order to do this, we need to determine whether you meet the definition of "small business" or "small organization" under rule 0-7.

Answer this Item 12 only if you are registered or registering with the SEC and you indicated in response to Item 5.F.(2)(c) that you have regulatory assets under management of less than $25 million. You are not required to answer this Item 12 if you are filing for initial registration as a state adviser, amending a current state registration, or switching from SEC to state registration.

In determining your or another person's total assets, you may use the total assets shown on a current balance sheet (but use total assets reported on a consolidated balance sheet with subsidiaries included, if that amount is larger).
- Control means the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of a person, whether through ownership of securities, by contract, or otherwise. Any person that directly or indirectly has the right to vote 25 percent or more of the voting securities, or is entitled to 25 percent or more of the profits, of another person is presumed to control the other person.

Item 4: Advisory Business

- A. Uplifting Capital Management, LLC doing business as Uplifting Capital (the “Adviser,” “Firm”, “we,” “us,” or “our”), is an investment adviser founded in 2022, registered in the State of California. The Adviser is owned by Uplifting Capital, Inc. (“Uplifting Capital”). Toussaint Bailey serves as Chief Executive Officer and Chief Compliance Officer of the Adviser and holds a majority interest in Uplifting Capital. Linda Asante serves as the Adviser’s Chief Investment Officer and is a minority shareholder of Uplifting Capital.
- B. Private Investment Funds: We power personalized impact through private investments for investors that pursue dual objectives of attractive financial return and positive impact on social and environmental challenges.
- C. We leverage deep experience in impact investing, private markets, and private wealth. We operate a proprietary impact investing database, powered by over 15 years of research, analysis, and investment due diligence. The database profiles over a thousand private market impact investing asset managers across investment strategies, impact themes and United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

We enable investments across several impact themes seeking to create positive outcomes for people, the planet, and the economy. Our impact private equity solutions cover a broad spectrum of asset classes, including venture capital, buyouts, structured equity, real estate and real assets. Private debt solutions encompass loan funds, impact notes, direct loans and liquid sustainable credit.

- D. The Adviser does not participate in any wrap fee programs.
- E. Toussaint Bailey and Linda Assante are shareholders of Uplifting Capital, Inc., which wholly owns Uplifting Capital Management, LLC, UC Money GP, LLC, and UC GP I, LLC. Uplifting Capital Management, LLC serves as Adviser and manages on a discretionary basis, Uplifting Capital Impact Money Fund, L.P. and Uplifting Capital Private Impact Fund I, L.P. (the “Fund” or “Funds”). UC Money GP, LLC and UC GP I, LLC, respectively, serve as the private Fund’s General Partners. As of December 31, 2023, the Adviser’s regulatory assets under management were approximately $18.6 Million. All assets are managed on a discretionary basis.

Clients should carefully consider the applicable Fund’s private placement memorandum, limited partnership agreement, and other fund-related disclosure documents (the “Fund Offering Documents”) and consult with appropriate tax and legal counsel prior to investing in the Funds.

Item 5: Fees and Compensation

- A. With respect to the Uplifting Capital Impact Money Fund, L.P., the Adviser charges a management fee equal to 0.50% per annum, payable quarterly in arrears based on the average balance of such Fund's assets during the prior quarter and prorated for partial quarters. With respect to the Uplifting Capital Private Impact Fund I, L.P., the Adviser charges a management fee equal to 1% per annum, payable quarterly in advance (i) based on capital committed to the Fund and, (ii) following the Fund's investment period, based on invested capital.
- B. Neither the Adviser nor any of its supervised persons accepts compensation for the sale of securities or other investment products except in connection with the Funds.

Item 6: Performance-Based Fees & Side-By-Side Management

Although the Advisor does not charge a performance fee to either of the Funds, the general partner of Uplifting Capital Private Impact Fund I, L.P. does charge a performance fee on certain investments made by the Fund. Fund investors should be aware that the general partner, UC GP I, LLC, and the Advisor are related entities. The performance-based fee arrangements may create an incentive for the Advisor to recommend investments which may be riskier or more speculative than those which would be recommended under a different fee arrangement. In addition, in certain cases the performance fee received by the Advisor is based on unrealized gains and losses. As a result, the performance fee earned could be based on unrealized gains that investors may never realize.

The Advisor selects investments that it believes are appropriate given the investment directives of the Funds. The Advisor does not confer any favorable treatment to one type of investor as opposed to another. Investors should carefully consider the applicable Funds' Offering Documents for additional information on how such conflicts of interest are addressed. Performance-based fees will only be charged in accordance with the provisions of CCR Section 260.234.

Item 7: Types of Clients

The Adviser generally provides its services to the Funds. The minimum account value required to invest in the Funds is as follows, subject to negotiation:

Type of Account	Minimum Account Value
Uplifting Capital Impact Money Fund	$50,000
Uplifting Capital Private Impact Fund I	$100,000

Item 8: Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies & Risk of Loss

- A. We believe business and free markets are a powerful force for good. We invest in companies, assets and partnerships that are intentionally oriented towards solutions to the monumental challenges that threaten the quality of human life.

Impact Investing enables private market investors to harness the power of free markets to compliment philanthropy and government against the challenges of our time; creating impactful solutions in the pursuit of strong investment returns.

We align investment portfolios with long-term growth and value creation themes that are driven by impact alpha, intentionally operating with an impact objective that enhances revenues and profits and adds financial value for investors.

The corporate purpose of our parent company, Uplifting Capital, Inc., a Delaware public benefit corporation, is to scale positive impact on our planet, its people and the global economy by improving investor access to quality for-profit private impact investments.

The investment strategies used by us when formulating investment advice or managing assets include investing in limited partnerships and private placements. For a complete description of the investment objective and the risk factors associated with the Funds, please refer to such Fund's Offering Documents. Investing in securities involves risk of loss that clients should be prepared to bear. Past performance does not guarantee future returns.

Investments in securities involve risk of loss that investors in a Fund must be prepared to bear. Investors should refer to the applicable Fund's governing documents for a complete understanding of the material risks involved in an investment in the Funds. The information contained herein is a summary only and is qualified in its entirety by such documents.

- B. Like any investment strategy, ours involves material risks. Such material risks are described in further detail below:
- i. Investing for the long term means that a client's account will be exposed to short-term fluctuations in the market and the behavioral impulse to make trading decisions based on such short-term market fluctuations. The Adviser does not condone short-term trading in an attempt to "time" the market, and instead coaches' clients to remain committed to their financial goals. However, investing for the long term can expose clients to risks borne out of changes to interest rates, inflation, general economic conditions, market cycles, geopolitical shifts, and regulatory changes.
  - ii. Inflation risk is the risk that the value of a client's portfolio will not appreciate at least in an amount equal to inflation over time. General micro- and macro-economic conditions may also affect the value of the securities held in a client's portfolio, and general economic downturns can trigger corresponding losses across various asset classes and security types. Market cycles may cause overall volatility and fluctuations in a portfolio's value and may increase the likelihood that securities are purchased when values are comparatively high and/or that securities are sold when values are comparatively low. Geopolitical shifts may result in market uncertainty, lowered expected returns, and general volatility in both domestic and international securities. Regulatory changes may have a negative impact on capital formation and increase the costs of doing business, and therefore result in decreased corporate profits and corresponding market values of securities.

- iii. Investments in limited partnerships and private investment vehicles are often subject to liquidity restrictions, which means that a client may not be able to redeem his or her investment until a redemption window is available. In addition, such investments can be more volatile and less transparent than an exchange-listed security that trades daily in an electronic marketplace. Limited partnerships and private investment vehicles are generally more difficult to value than exchange-listed securities, and therefore are more reliant on individual judgment as opposed to market prices when determining a valuation. Investors into limited partnerships and private investment vehicles are typically required to be either accredited investors, qualified clients, or both, and should carefully consider the specific risks described in the applicable Fund Offering Documents.
- iv. Although certain of its principals have experience with the Funds' investment strategy, the Adviser and the Funds are newly organized entities with a limited history of operations and earnings. The Adviser's proposed operations are subject to all business risks associated with new enterprises. The likelihood of the Firm's investment success must be considered in light of the operational risks typically associated with the formation and growth of a business. There is no assurance that the operations of the Funds will be profitable, or that the Adviser will have sufficient revenue to retain its staff to adequately implement the Funds' investment strategy. The success of the Funds depends in substantial part on the experience and expertise of the Adviser and its management. The success of the Funds will also depend on key personnel of the underlying funds to which the Funds commit. There can be no assurance that any individual will continue to be employed by the Adviser or any underlying funds to which the Adviser commits throughout the term of the Funds. The loss of such key personnel could have a material adverse effect on the Funds.
- v. The Funds will make a limited number of investments focused on pursuing private market impact investments with a positive social and environmental impact and may not enjoy the reduced risks of a more broadly diversified portfolio. A specific investment focus and a small number of investments are inherently more risky and could cause a Fund's investment to be more susceptible to particular economic, political, regulatory, technological or industry conditions compared with a fund, or portfolio of funds, that is more diversified or has a broader industry and/or geographical focus or a greater number of investments.
- vi. The General Partners will monitor the performance of each investment and maintain an ongoing dialogue with each direct investment's management team. However, it will be primarily the responsibility of the management of the direct investment to operate such company on a day-to-day basis. Although it is the intent of the Funds to invest in direct investments with strong operating management that has a successful track record, there can be no assurance that a direct investment's management team will be able to operate the company successfully. A weak or unsuccessful management team can have a material adverse effect on a direct investment's performance and thus on the performance of the Funds.

Item 9: Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events material to the Adviser's operation. However, the California State Bar license of Toussaint Bailey was temporarily suspended from 07/02/2019 to 09/12/2019 due to an inadvertent failure to pay bar membership renewal fees after he had ceased practicing law. Mr. Bailey ceased practicing law in 2018 and all of his fees are current and up to date.

Item 10: Other Financial Industry Activities & Affiliations

- A. Neither the Adviser nor any of its related persons are registered, or have an application pending to register, as a broker-dealer or a registered representative of a broker-dealer.

  - viii. pension consultant
  - ix. real estate broker or dealer
  - x. sponsor or syndicator of limited partnerships

Toussaint Bailey and Linda Assante shareholders of Uplifting Capital, Inc., which wholly owns Uplifting Capital Management, LLC, UC Money GP, LLC, and UC GP I, LLC. serves as Adviser and manages on a discretionary basis the two private funds, Uplifting Capital Impact Money Fund, L.P. and Uplifting Capital Private Impact Fund I, L.P. UC Money GP, LLC and UC GP I, LLC, respectively, serve as the private Fund's General Partners. The Adviser selects investments that it believes are appropriate given the investment directives of the Funds. The Adviser does not confer any favorable treatment to one type of investor as opposed to another. Fund investors should carefully consider the applicable Fund's Offering Documents and consult with appropriate tax and legal counsel prior to investing in the Funds.

Item 11: Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions & Personal Trading

- A. The Adviser has adopted a code of ethics that will be provided to any client or prospective client upon request. The Adviser's code of ethics describes the standards of business conduct that the Adviser requires of its supervised persons, which is reflective of the Adviser's fiduciary obligations to act in the best interests of its clients. The code of ethics also includes sections related to compliance with securities laws, reporting of personal securities transactions and holdings, reporting of violations of the code of ethics to the Adviser's Chief Compliance Officer, pre-approval of certain investments by access persons, and the distribution of the code of ethics and any amendments to all supervised persons followed by a written acknowledgement of their receipt.
- B. Neither the Adviser nor any of its related persons recommends to clients, or buys or sells for client accounts, securities in which Adviser or any of its related persons has a material financial interest other than the Funds.
- C. From time to time, the Adviser or its related persons will invest in the same securities (or related securities such as warrants, options or futures) that the Adviser or a related person recommends to clients. This has the potential to create a conflict of interest because it affords the Adviser or its related persons the opportunity to profit from the investment recommendations made to clients. The Adviser's policies and procedures and code of ethics address this potential conflict of interest by prohibiting such trading by the Adviser or its related persons if it would be to the detriment of any client and by monitoring for compliance through the reporting and review of personal securities transactions. In all instances the Adviser will act in the best interests of its clients.
- D. From time to time, the Adviser or its related persons will buy or sell securities for client accounts at or about the same time that the Adviser or a related person buys or sells the same securities for its own (or the related person's own) account. This has the potential to create a conflict of interest because it affords the Adviser or its related persons the opportunity to trade either before or after the trade is made in client accounts, and profit as a result. The Adviser's policies and procedures and code of ethics address this potential conflict of interest by prohibiting such trading by the Adviser or its related persons if it would be to the detriment of any client and by monitoring for compliance through the reporting and review of personal securities transactions. In all instances the Adviser will act in the best interests of its clients.

Item 12: Brokerage Practices

- A. The Adviser utilizes Silicon Valley Bank, a Division of First Citizen Bank, as the custodian for the Funds.
  - i. The Adviser does not receive research or other products or services other than execution from a broker-dealer or third-party (“soft dollar benefits”) in connection with client securities transactions.
  - ii. Neither the Adviser nor a related person receives client referrals from a broker-dealer or third-party.
  - iii. The Adviser does not routinely recommend, request or require that clients direct the Adviser to execute transactions through a specified broker-dealer. To the extent a client desires to direct brokerage transactions, please be advised that the Adviser may not be able to seek most favorable execution with respect to such directed transactions.
- B. Allocation - When the Adviser is going to make an investment on behalf of multiple Underlying Funds, to the extent there is limited capacity in the Underlying Fund(s), the capacity is allocated on a pro-rata basis among the Underlying Fund(s) on a basis deemed fair and equitable by the Managing Members.
- C. IPOs - Uplifting Capital and the Fund(s) do not participate in IPO's with any of the Underlying Funds and/or Fund Managers.
- D. Trade Errors - Uplifting Capital does not conduct in-house trading on behalf of the Funds.
- E. Principal Transactions - Uplifting Capital does not participate in principal transactions.
- F. Agency Cross Transactions - Uplifting Capital does not participate in agency cross transactions.

Item 13: Review of Accounts

All investments are reviewed on a continuous basis by the Adviser. The investment strategies used by Uplifting Capital when managing assets include investing in limited partnerships and private placements. For a complete description of the investment objective and the risk factors associated with the Funds, please refer to such Fund's Offering Documents.

The Adviser will review the portfolio/investments of the Fund and Underlying Funds at least quarterly to monitor changes of investment vehicles and potential changes in the managers' investment approach. Performance is also monitored throughout the month for managers who can provide interim performance results. These reviews are conducted by the Chief Investment Officer. To ensure that the Adviser has fully satisfied its investigation responsibilities, the initial investigation of an Underlying Manager will, at a minimum, include the following:

- Conduct a background check of the Underlying Manager/General Partner;
- Review background information on the Underlying Managers, for example, Manager ADVs, DDQs, and Manager's pitchbook;
- Review the Underlying Managers Offering Memorandum, Subscription Documents, and Limited Partnership Agreements.

In addition, the Firm's investment committee conducts monthly management meetings to review macroeconomic events, the Underlying Manager's investment thesis, and overall market conditions. A significant change in a holding or the overall markets may trigger a review of all managers or a particular manager other than the monthly review.

With respect to the Funds, statements are sent to Fund investors by the Fund administrator on a quarterly basis.

Item 14: Client Referrals and Other Compensation

- A. The Adviser does not receive any economic benefit from persons who are not clients.
- B. Neither the Adviser nor its related persons directly or indirectly compensate for client referrals persons who are not the Adviser's supervised persons.

Item 15: Custody

All client funds and securities are held in custody by unaffiliated broker-dealers or banks; however, the Adviser is deemed to have custody with respect to the Funds, since the General Partners of the Funds are under common control with the Adviser. As such, the Funds' financial statements are annually audited by an independent and unaffiliated third-party accounting firm in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (U.S. GAAP), and such statements are distributed to investors in the Funds.

If a Fund investor receives account statements from both the custodian and the Adviser or a third-party report provider, the client is urged to compare such account statements and notify the Adviser of any discrepancies between them.

Item 16: Investment Discretion

For the Funds, the Adviser's discretionary authority is granted by the investor as a signing party to the Funds' limited partnership agreement.

Item 17: Voting Client Securities

As an adviser to Fund of Funds, the Adviser does not have the authority to proxies. If applicable, the Underlying Manager(s) vote proxies for their respective investments. If the Adviser inadvertently receives any proxy materials on behalf of a client, the Adviser will promptly forward such materials to the client.

Item 18: Financial Information

Material conflicts of interest in these and other areas of the Adviser's business have been disclosed in this Brochure.
